

Behold on what sure foundations his happiness is built whose soul is possessed with divine love, whose will is transformed into the will of God, and whose greatest desire is that his Maker should be pleased. O the peace, the rest, the satisfaction that attends such a temper of mind!

-HENRY SCOU GAL (verse 34 quote)

When you pray, rather let your hearts be without words, than your words without a heart.

-JOHN BUNYAN (after verse 40)

Questions:

- 1) What are the conditions by which God teaches us?

- 2) What is the purpose of asking God for understanding? Why must we ask God for understanding?

- 3) What are the advantages of being led by God?

- 4) What is a sign our hearts are not inclined to God?

- 5) How has the word "way" been used in this Psalm this far?

- 6) Why do we approach God in humility through prayer? What does this look like?

- 7) What would cause reproach and dread?

- 8) How could a righteous God give us life?