

How blessed are those who walk in the ways of the Lord? The acrostic poem that is psalm 119 reveals just that. Not by our own will or choices but by the grace of our Lord and Savior we can become blameless. Only through the forgiveness of sins may we be forgiven. Belief in Jesus Christ is the only way to get a downpayment of His spirit. Then through His spirit, with an endless amount of grace, we are able to walk blameless before the Lord as our hearts become more aligned with the Almighty Fathers. When will you lay down your ways and seek the Lord with your whole heart?
